Panel Discussion: Josh Lee and Xavier Knights.

Art Workshops: Josh Lee and Xavier Knights

Music: The OJ's - Jules Patterson, Jacob Paton Lee & Owen Ellemor

No Cost

Xavier Knights: aka House Cat is a visual artist renowned for his vibrant pencil colour work, exploring multiverse realms, futuristic themes, and mythical, lively landscapes. Passionate about change and progress, Xavier infuses transformation into every piece. Beyond canvas and paper, House Cat brings his bold designs to life on T-shirts and tote bags, making his art wearable and ever-evolving.

Josh Lee is a precise artist, crafting lifelike worlds and creatures with astonishing detail. Dedicated to biological accuracy, he brings mythical beings to life with precision and depth. His passion for creation is unmatched, pouring careful thought into every line. For Josh, art isn't just imagination, it's a study, a science, and an obsession.

Julian Patterson is a zealous, yet humble artist, whose songwriting and voice is unlike anything you have ever heard. His gritty vocals, paired with lyrics that are injected with experiences from his life are emotive and will leave you profoundly speechless. Julian's music is inspired by deep spirituality, and he often says that music is what drives him. He has likened music to medicine and has a constant desire for his music to have a meaningful impact.

Jacob Paton-Lee also known as JPL, is an exceptionally creative individual and a vital force behind narrating his own and his community's stories. His music can be best described as sincere and deeply thoughtful, both in lyrics and melody. Jacob is lively and animated, exuding powerful energy during his performances, making his presence on stage truly electrifying. As an artist, he is humble and kind, always prioritising what truly matters. Jacob delves into the human experience, using music as a powerful tool to motivate and empower.

The OJ's is a newly formed trio blending raw emotion, storytelling, and electrifying energy. The band fuses deep lyricism and magnetic stage presence into a sound that resonates beyond the music itself. Julian's gritty, soul-stirring vocals meet Jacob's high-energy performances, while Owen brings his own unique artistry and smooth style to the mix. With a shared passion for music as a force for meaning and change, The OJ's craft songs that leave a mark.
